DAMNING INDICTMENT AGAINST BLACK TROOPS

So Lifelong Republican Styles Affair at Brownsville.

NO PROVOCATION FOR MURDER

General Nettleton, Former Assistant Secretary of Treasury, Investigates and Reports that the Negro Troops Went After Trouble.

Brownsville, Tex., Nov. 330.—Because of the apparent misunderstanding in portions of the country of the facts which called forth the order for the discharge of the three companies of negro soldiers recently stationed here, and in view of the fierce criticism of the president's course in the matter, the citizens' committee of Brownsville recently requested General A. B. Nettleton, of Chicago, a former assistant secretary of the treasury, now here on business, to make, in his own way, a thorough and disinterested investigation of the Brownsville tragedy of Aug. 13, and report his conclusions.

General Nettleton has embodied his findings in a letter to the secretary of war. He says in part:

"As a citizen of Illionois, as anti-slavery advocate when that phrase had a meaning, and as a lifelong republican, who served in the union army throughout the civil war, I shall at least not be suspected to prejudice against men of color as such.

"I feel sure that only carefully disseminated misinformation as to the facts can account for the present gross misapprehension on the part of many persons and journals.

"Without rehearsing details I wish to assure you that this absolutely unprejudiced investigation, made after local excitement has subsided, confirms in every particular the conclusions reached by the two army officers sent here by the war department, on the strength of which the president took his action, as well as the very clear and temperate statement published immediately atfer the tragedy by Chairman Kelley, of the Brownsville citizens' committee.

"That statement probably constitutes the most conclusive and damning indictment ever found against soldiers of any race wearing the uniform and wielding the weapons of a civilised government."

After summarizing the facts, hitherto published, as to the killing of one citizen, the maiming of the chief of police, the firing of volleys into and through hotels, saloons and many private residences and the terrorizing of the entire town, he continues:

"The well attested evidence, controverted by none, is that the colored troops were treated here with the same consideration with which colored soldiers of like bearing are treated in most garrison towns of the northern states. That on the other hand, the street conduct of some of them was often aggressively and causelessly insolent toward white men and women; that there was no provocation for the murderous raid by the soldiers, unless it can be called a provocation that the drinkers among them were provided with separate bar rooms in certain saloons and that on two occasions individual insolence was resented by individual citizens, both of whom happen to have been republican federal officials.

"There was no 'riot' and no street 'rows,' as many newspapers persist in calling the occurrence. It was simply a most cowardly conspiracy to terrify, wound and kill unoffending men, women and children at the hour of midnight, when defense or resistance was impossible, and was not even attempted. Evidently not a return shot was fired."

General Nettleton's letter sharply raised the question what were the white officers of the garrison doing on the night of the raid, and closing thus:

"In view of the facts as I find them here, the present attempt on the part of some to make martyrs of any portion of the discharged men would be appalling, if it were not grotesque. The conspiracy of silence on the part of all members of the battalion prevents the government from punishing the previous conspiracy of violence and murder, and the dismissal of all alike from the service which they have disgraced is perfectly just. I believe no other course than that which the president has pursued is open to him, unless ever yamerican community, north and south alike, is to be given cause to dread the proimity of the negro garrison, as it would mean an encampment of armed and uniformed assassins.

"I sympathize deeply with the colored people in their upward struggle in America against fearful odds, but I believe the most damaging service that can be rendered them as race in this period of transition is that of championing or excusing the criminal element in their ranks."

CHINESE MENACE MISSIONARIES

More Trouble at Point Where Mrs. Machie and Others Were Slain.

Canton, China, Nov. 30.—Hostile demonstrations against Missionaries have been renewed in the Lienchow district. That is where a little more than a year ago a mob barbarously put to death five American missionaries, Mrs. E. C. Machie, her daughter, Amy, Dr. Eleanor Chestnut, the Rev. and Mrs. John Rogers Peale.

The American Consul-General here Mr. Julius G. Leay, has called upon the viceroy to insist that the missionaries at Lienchow and their property be protected. It is highly probbable that this demand will be heeded, as the government of China humbly apologized to the American government for last year's outrage, beheaded three of the murderers, sentenced nine to prison, bambooed others and paid $60,000 for individual losses and damage to property.

Supreme Court Denies Petition.

Atlanta, Nov. 30.—The supreme court has declined to issue an order of mandamus directing Judge Mitchell to certify to a bill of exceptions recently asked for by Attorney John R. Cooper, of Macon, in the Rawlings case. The supreme court sustains Judge Mitchell's action in a lengthy opinion, and now unless Attorney Cooper finds some other legal resort, there is nothing in the way of the execution of old J. G. Rawlings and the other murderers of the Carter children. But Mr. Cooper stated Wednesday that while he did not know what his next step would be, he did not propose to let old man Rawlings hang yet. The supposition is, therefore, that he means to continue fighting for delay.

Son Stabbed by His Father.

Sneads, Fla., Nov. 30.—Thomas Yon was fatally stabbed at Comfort, near here by his father, Higdon A. Yon. The senior Yon, who had been drinking, was beating his wife when the son interfered. The father drew his knife and stabbed the young man just under the heart and in the right breast. He then cut Mrs. Yon, making an ugly gash on the face, the blade penetrating the cheek and splitting her tongue. Higdon Yon was immediately arrested and carried to Marianna. Thomas Yon succumbed to his wounds. Mrs. Yon is related to some of the best families iin Jackson county.

Mayor Schmitz Under Arrest.

Truckee, Calif., Nov. 30.—Mayor Eugene E. Schmitz, of San Francisco, Cal., who, with his wife, is returning from a trip to Europe, was arrested here by Deputy Sheriff Knox, on a charge of extortion found by the grand jury in San Francisco. The indicted official seemed to feel his arrest keenly. Mrs. Schmitz seemed entirely unnerved at the arrest of her husband. The tears came to her eyes, and she appeared to be very much worried. Mr. Schmitz did not emerge from the drawing room, where he was closeted with Abraham Ruef.

Axworthy Sold for $21,000.

New York, Nov. 30.—The chestnut stallion Axworthy, famous as the sire of more than forty trotters of the 2:20 class, was sold to William Simpson, of Cuba, N. Y., at the Madison Square auction sale. Mr. Simpson's final bid was $21,000. His principal competitor was Thornton Moore, Jr., of Paris, Ky.

ROOSEVELT ATTACKS SOUTHERN MILL MEN

Alleges Mill Owners Have Violated Labor Law.

MILL OWNERS WILL MAKE FIGHT

They Assert that They Have Not Violated the Law.—The trouble Caused by the Employment of English Immigrants.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 30.—Upon request of Secretry Metcalf, of the department of commerce and labor, the attorney general has caused the institution of procedings against a number of North Carolina cotton mill owners for alleged violation of the alien contract labor law.

Charlotte Mil Men Summoned.

Charlotte, N. C., Nov. 30.—Colonel H. C. Cowles, of Statesville, clerk of the United States court, has issued summons for Messrs. Thomas M. Costellom, Edward A. Smith, S. B. Sargent and E. C. Dwelle, commanding their presence at the approaching term of federal court, which convenes in this city Dec. 10, to answer to the charge of having violated the contract labor laws of the United States in the importation of a number of English mill operatives into this section. This action by Colonel Cowles was taken at the instance of United States District Attorney A. E. Holton, of Winston, and Assistant District Attorney A. L. Coble, of Statesville.

For several days it has been reported that negotiations were in progress looking to an adjustment of the differences between the governmnet and the cotton mill men concerned. The fact that a summons has been issued and proceedings commenced does not necessarily mean that a compromise will not be reached. A settlement may now be made and the whole matter kept out of the courts.

The law which several of the local cotton mill me nare said to have violated is found in the act of March 3, 1903, entitled "an act to regulate the immigration of aliens into the United States.

Within the past few months there have come into Piedmont Carolina between 80 and 90 mill operatives from the Lancashire district of England. Inspector A. F. McLaughlin placed 32 of these under arrest and they are now awaiting orders for their deportation. Their evidence has been taken down and they are being detained until the government discloses how to act. The case has been turned into the hands of the department of justice and District Attorney Holton is in charge.

The cotton mill men have employed Tillett & Guthrie to represent them, and there is the promise of a battle royal in he courts. The mill men assert that they have not violated the laws and hence are not liable.

No arrests have been made nor were any bonds required.

Typhoid Infection Can Be Prevented.

New York, Nov. 30.—Tea is a preventive of typhoid, it has just been announced in England. The discovery is made by Maj. J. C. McNaught, a surgeon in the British army, who acquaints the medical profession in America with the particular of his experiments. He finds that the typhoid germ, in pure culture, becomes greatly diminished in numbers by an exposure of four hours to the beverage. Where typhoid is known to be present, tea may serve as one of the essential precautional measures to guard against infection by this dread disease.

Dr. Wm. Kane Dead.

Crawfordsville, Ind., Nov. 30.—Information has reached here of the death of Dr. William P. Kane, the president of Wabash college, at a health resort near Hot Springs, Ark.

Switchman's Wages Raised.

Denver, Nov. 30.—The Denver and Rio Grande, Colorado and Southern and Colorado Midland railways have increased switchmen's wages 4 cents an hour.

REFUSED TO AID HER VICTIM

Because She Would Get Blood on Her Dress.

Denver, Colo., Nov. 30.—As a result of an automobile accident in the heart of the retail district Howard O'Haver, a rich retired dairyman, is dead, and Miss Birdie Appel, a young society woman of Denver, has been arrested on a charge of manslaughter.

O'Haver was crossing Sixteenth street at Stout street when the auto, swerving to avoid a street car, struck him. A large crowd immediately gathered, and it was suggested to the young lady that she should take the man in her automobile to a hospital. She is alleged by an eyewitness to have stated that she could not do that as she would get blood on her dress. Her friends state that she was hysterical at the time and was not accountable for the remark, as she is a woman of beautiful character and had been possessed of fear lest some such accident might happen.

The victim was finally taken to the County Hospital in a police ambulance and died later. The police at once arrested Miss Appel on a manslaughter charge, but she was released on $5,000 bail, furnished by her father, proprietor of a prominent dry goods store.

HE REFUSED TO BITE OFF HEAD

Of Mouse and the Soldier Was Badly Beaten by the Crazy Prince.

Belgrade, Servia, Nov. 30.—Crown Prince George's mental condition is such that Dr. Fleehseg, an eminent expert on lunacy, has been summoned here from Leipsic. Nevertheless the government continues to put out clumsy denials of facts about the Crown Prince that are notorious.

A mouse was caught alive in the Prince's room recently. He seized it by the tail, and ran with it to two sentinels before the palace entrance. Holding it close to a soldier's mouth, the Crown Prince gave the order:

"Bite off it's head!"

"I cannot, Majesty," stammered the startled guard.

Instantly the Crown Prince fell on him, and in the presence of a number of persons beat him terribly, and loudly cursing him brandished a pistol and threatened to shoot him.

Chattanooga Officer Dismissed.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Nov. 30—Patrolman Day, the officer who was charged with having struck and abused Will Menaker, son of S. Menaker, a wealthy handkerchief manufacturer of Passaic, N. J., has been dismissed from the service of the local department. After investigating the charges against the officer the board of public safety promptly dismissed him. Patrolman Ed Boydson was also dismissed from service by the board for sleeping while on duty. The case of Officer Conley, who hit Ed Cox, who was intoxicated, will also be investigated.

Five Waterspouts Sighted.

New York, Nov. 30.—For four days 1,500 immigrant passengers on the Italian steamer Florida, which arrived from Genoa and Naples, were kept below decks, while the steamer pitched and rolled in a gale which at times assumed almost the proportions of a hurricane. The Florida came through safely, however, and none of her passengers suffered any permanent injury. On the night of November 24, four or five great waterspouts were sighted, some of them very near the steamer.

Urges Kodak War on Vice.

Chicago, Nov. 30.—Mrs. Stillwell, head of the Salvation Army rescue work in Chicago, who has been engaged in slum work for twenty years suggested at the Fourth Presbyterian church that a "kodak squad" be used to rid the city of its "Red Light" district. "I think one of the most expedient ways of putting notorious places out of commission," she said, "would be the free use of a kodak to take pictures of people found frequenting such places."

Two Officials Indicted.

Jacksonville, Ill., Nov. 30.—C. G. Rutledge, Cashier of Ayers National bank, and J. A. Obermeyer, a druggist, both members of the board of education, were indicted on a charge of making unlawful contracts in purchasing supplies for public schools.

MURDERESS OF CHILDREN PARDONE

Governor Frees Woman Wh Killed Her Children.

HAS RECOVERED HER REASO

Says That She Remembers Nothing o Her Revolting Deed Which Wa Committed Nearly Six Years Ago Was Starving at Time of Act.

Worcester, Mass., Nov. 30.—Gov Guild has granted a pardon to Mrs Elizabeth A. Naramore, who has bee an inmate of the Worcester Insan Hospital since March, 1901, when sh chopped to pieces her six children a her home at Coldbrook Springs, an then attempting suicide.

Mrs. Naramore at the time wa starving, and was insane. She wa committed for life.

Recently Dr. H. M. Quimby, su perintendent of the hospital, reporte to the governor that Mrs. Naramor had recovered her reason, and afte a personal visit and a talk with her the governor issued orders for her re lease.

Mrs. Naramore says she know nothing of what happened six year ago, excepting what the authoritie have told her. She is a large, hand some woman, in the prime of life and intends to leave the hospital a soon as she finds a place to live. Dr Quimby told the governor that she wa entirely guiltless of any crime, and was driven to her rash act by priva tion.

Mrs. Naramore's husband, who had been earning $12 a week, was out o employment for two months in the winter, and the woman and her children suffered severely from cold and lack of nutrition. The overseer of the poor assisted them for a while and Naramore finally procured employment. His wife, whose mind had become affected, accused him of spending his small earnings on other women.

The mad mother with an ax, struck her children on the head, killing them in the order of their ages. She began with Ethel, 10 years old, whose body she placed on a bed. Next, Walter, 8 years old, was killed and his body placed by that of his sister.

Charles, Chester and Bessie were then slain, and their bodies placed on another bed. Then the woman beat out the life of her last born, a tiny baby.

The mother lay beside her four youngest children and cut her throat. The children were killed in four different rooms.

Mrs. Naramore was acquitted of murder two months later upon the ground of insanity.

Fired School Building.

East St. Louis, Ills., Nov. 30.—A large brick building which was leased last week by the board of education for a negro school, was destroyed by fire and there is evidence that prejudice against the establishment of a school for negroes caused the building to be set on fire. Late Wednesday night the building was discovered to be on fire, but prompt action saved the building. The firemen found rags soaked with oil on the second floor hallway. The destruction of the building marks the second building leased for a negro school house that has been burned within the last two weeks.

Stove Polish Exploded.

Sandusky, O., Nov. 30.—A patent polish purchased from a peddler exploded while Mrs. James Miller, aged 70 years, a widow, residing near Bloomingville, was brushing up her kitchen stove in which there were a few hot coals. Mrs. Miller's clothing took fire and she was terribly burned. The doctors say she cannot live.

Williams Plays Vardeman.

Walthall, Miss., Nov. 30.—John Sharp Williams is strongly opposing Governor Vardeman here, saying it is a nonsequitur on the negro question and does not understand the sentiment in the south.

TWENTIETH CENTURY CLUB.

Interesting Meeting at Home of Mrs. A. M. Cushman Monday.

The meeting of the Twentieth Century Club, held at the residence of Mrs. A. M. Cushman on Monday, December 28th, was an occasion of more than usual enjoyment, and a large attendance testified to the well sustained interest in club affairs.

After the discussion and disposal of the accumulated business, the most entertaining item of which was the excellent financial report of the treasurer, the leader of the day, Mrs. Tench, took the chair, and the literary program was inaugurated. The important feature of this was an excellent paper prepared by Mrs. A. R. Harper on "The Tudor Sovereigns of England," which was supplemented by some personal incidents of the Shakespeare country from Mrs. Medlin, a brief selection on the same subject read by Mrs. Phillips, and another interesting bit of English history read by Mrs. Chapin. Very general table talk upon the subject under discussion followed, and when the gathering twilight forced a reluctant dispersal, it was with a general regret that the good-byes were uttered.

The club has inaugurated the year's work under most auspicious conditions. The membership is full, the scope of work considerably enlarged, and the very general interest manifested indicates that the work will be conscientiously performed.

The fact that the next Federation of Woman's Clubs will meet in Gainesville at the invitation of the Twentieth Century Club, will prove an incentive to energy, even if the work itself were not so interesting.

MARRIED LADIES' CLUB.

Delightful Card Party Given at Home of Mrs. B. F. Hampton.

The Married Ladies' Club tendered a delighhtful card party at the home of Mrs. B. F. Hampton, Thursday afternoon, which was well attended.

Progressive whist was the game, and there were five tables. The game was vigorously prosecuted by the ladies, many fine points being made which showed the efficiency of the players.

There was only one prize, and honors fell even with Mesdames Grieves and Layton. The ladies settled the "dispute" by cutting the cards, when Mrs. Grieves was the victor.

During the afternoon refreshments of chicken salad and coffee, wafers and olives, were served.

Makes the Liver Lively.

Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup gives permanent relief in cases of habitual constipation as it stimulates the liver, and restores the natural action of the bowels without irritating these organs like pills or ordinary cathartics. Does not nauseate or gripe and is mild and pleasant to take. Remember the name Orino and refuse substitutes. J. W. McCollum & Co.

Treating Wrong Disease.

Many times women call on their family physicians, suffering, as they imagine, one from dyspepsia, another from heart disease, another from liver or kidney disease, another from nervous exhaustion or prostration, another with pain here and there, and in this way they all present alike to themselves and their easy-going and indifferent, or over-busy doctor, separate and distinct diseases, for which he, assuming them to be such, prescribes his pills and potions. In reality, they are all only symptoms caused by some uterine disease. The physician, ignorant of the cause of suffering, encourages this practice until large bills are made. The suffering patient gets no better, but probably worse, by reason of the delay, wrong treatment and consequent complications. A proper medicine like Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, directed to the cause would have entirely removed the disease, thereby dispelling all those distressing symptoms, and instituting comfort instead of prolonged misery. It has been well said, that "a disease known is half cured."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a scientific medicine, carefully devised by an experienced and skillful physician, and adapted to woman's delicate system. It is made of native medicinal roots and is perfectly harmless in its effects in any condition of the system.

As a powerful invigorating tonic "Favorite Prescription" imparts strength to the whole system and to the organs distinctly feminine in particular. For overworked, "worn-out," "run-down," debilitated teachers, milliners, dressmakers, seamstresses, "shop girls," house-keepers, nursing mothers, and feeble women generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the greatest earthly boon, being unequaled as an appetizing cordial and restorative tonic.

As a soothing and strengthening nervine "Favorite Prescription" is unequaled and is invaluable in allaying and subduing nervous excitability, irritability, nervous exhaustion, nervous prostration, neuralgia, hysteria, spasms, chorea, St. Vitus's dance, and other distressing, nervous symptoms commonly attendant upon functional and organic disease of the uterus. It induces refreshing sleep and relieves mental anxiety and despondency.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets invigorate the stomach, liver and bowels. One to three a dose. Easy to take as candy.

DELIGHTFUL STRAW RIDE

Participated in by a Number of Society Young Folks.

At half-past 8 o'clock Thursday afternoon a party of Gainesville ladies and gentlemen shipped aboard the hurricane deck of a double-mule tally-ho and hied themselves to Newnan's lake to enjoy the day-end of nineteen-hundred-and six's Thanksgiving.

The merry party made merry with the valuable time spent under the blue canopy of heaven by the lovely and limpid waters of the lake.

At the hour of eight, long after Old Sol had retired in the Golden West and Fair Luna and millions of stars had appeared and lighted everywhere in a halo of glory, the party again shipped aboard the tally-ho and rode homeward bound, reaching home at nine.

After arriving home from the lake an entertainment was indulged in at the beautiful home of Mrs. M. B. Saunders.

Those who composed the party were: Miss Alma Sullivan, Miss Irene McCreary, Miss Margaret Jackson, Miss Alice Saunders, Miss Ida Redding, Miss Nina Cellon; Mr. Dyal, Mr. Clyde Evans, Mr. Bloxham Dell, Mr. Sandy Graham and Mr. Larkin Carter.

The party was chaperoned by Mrs. M. B. Saunders and Mrs. James Merchant.

ALBERT ANSON GRAHAM.

Five Injured in Collision.

Macon, Ga., Nov. 30.—A collision between a regular freight train and a wrecking train on the Central of Georgia railroad, near Bolingbroke, in addition to blocking the trains, injured five men, none seriously. Both the engines were badly damaged two cars, one of oysters and one of oranges, being spilled.

Fined for an Insulting Note.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 30.—George R. Johnson, a young white man, was fined $100 in the police court for writing an insulting letter to a 16-year-old girl.

New Zealand Mocking Birds.

The Poe honey eater is one of the commonest and at the same time handsomest of the New Zealand birds. The neck is ornamented with a frill of curly feathers of a greenish color with white centers, and the throat is adorned with a tuft of white feathers, which has gained for it the popular name of "parson bird," an appellation appropriate not only because of this decoration, but because of the resemblance of its peculiar attitudes when singing to the gesticulations indulged in by exuberant lecturers when wishing to drive home their points. The bird is an excellent mimic and can be taught to repeat short sentences with extraordinary clearness and also to whistle short songs quite as well as a parrot.

Will Interest Many.

Every person should know that good health is impossible if the kidneys are deranged. Foley's Kidney Cure will cure kidney and bladder disease in every form, and will build up and strengthen these organs so they will perform their functions properly. No danger of Bright's disease or diabetes if Foley's Kidney Cure is taken in time. J. W. McCollum & Co.

A Fast Train.

"Is this a fast train?" asked a passenger who was tired of looking at a station at which the train was not supposed to stop.

"Of course it is," was the conductor's reply.

"I thought so. Would you mind my getting out to see what it's fast to?"

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, causing catarrh of the bladder, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell.

Bladder troubles almost always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

IN CIRCUIT COURT.

Entire Day Was Spent Friday in Mallard Vs. A. C. L. Damage Case.

The entire day of the circuit court Friday, which required an evening session, was consumed in the famous case of Mrs. Carrie D. Mallard vs the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company, trespass on the case, damages $50,000, for the death of husband of plaintiff.

The court, which had labored with this case all during Thursday, convened at the regular hour Friday morning, when taking of testimony was resumed. A large number of witnesses were exr mined, and at the hour for adjourning in the afternoon Judge Palmer announced a night session.

It is calculated that the case will be concluded today, when court may adjourn for the term.

MR. RAMSEY'S LOSS.

Had Misfortune to Lose Moss Mill by Fire Thursday Night.

F. H. Clyatt of Clyatt Station, on the Gainesville and Gulf, who was in the city Friday, brought the information that the large moss mill belonging to and operated by Perry G. Ramsey at Wacahoota was burned to the ground some time during Thursday night. The mill was in smouldering ruins when Mr. Clyatt passed.

Mr. Ramsey usually kept a large quantity of moss on hand, and it is supposed that this was also burned, which will aggregate a considerable loss, with the building and apparatus.

Friends of Mr. Ramsey will sympathize with him in this loss.

Sunday School Party.

Through the courtesy of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. McDonald, Rocky Point, the members of the Sunday school at that place were tendered a most delightful Thanksgiving party Thursday evening.

The evening was passed in a manner appropriate to the occasion. There were quite a number present, all of whom are under obligations to the clever host and hostess.

Boy Killed by Whiskey.

New York, Nov. 30.—Eight-year-old Vladimer Bayer, who, with his mother, was a cabin passenger on the Holland-American Liner Statendam, died on Nov. 19, as the result of drinking eight ounces of cognac, which was mistaken for water. The child's body was buried at sea. Mrs. Bayer attempted to throw herself overboard after the child's body had been lowered into the sea.

Goosebone Foretells Hard Winter.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Nov. 30.—Isaac Heming, the goosebone weather prophet has completed his observations for the winter and now declares that December, January and February will be severe, and that it will be the hardest winter for years, followed by a mild and early spring.

Ginners Rapped by North.

Washington, Nov. 30.—In his annual report Dr. S. N. L. North, director of the census bureau, alleges that some ginners understate reports in the hope of influencing the cotton market. He recommends more rigid laws.

Made a Gorilla King.

The craze among society women for queer pets is an old story. It usually ends through being carried too far. There is the case of Andromeda, for instance, and there is that other affair of the decadent Roman emperor's daughter, who had a pet gorilla, procured for her at great cost by an Arabian trader who supplied strange beasts for the amphitheater. One day the Practorian guard arose and murdered the caesar. The gorilla, who happened to be present, strangled the ringleader, who was to have assumed the imperial purple himself, with its bare hands. This delighted the Practorians that they unanimously elected the gorilla, whom they took for a barbarian from North Britain, to the vacant throne. On the mistake being explained by a zoologically minded patrician, the divus caesar had to be killed and another one chosen.—London News.

Chinese Gambler's Penance.

A Chinese cook named Chin Kan had been engaged by a wealthy Chinese in Ha In street in Canton. All the money he earned had been lost in gambling. On one occasion his master paid him some money for the provisions he supplied. The cook lost all the money at the table. Finding that his debts were accumulating day by day, on the twenty-fourth day he went into the kitchen and chopped off the forefinger of his left hand as a self punishment and warning in order to relinquish this evil habit of gambling in the future. He became unconscious through the pain, but was brought round again in a few minutes.—Singapore Times.

A Queer Play In Baseball.

Here is a play in baseball that happened long ago. Perhaps it never will happen again. Did any one ever hear of a base runner scoring from first base on a line drive that was caught by a third baseman and when the ball never left the third baseman's hand? The play happened in this way: Andy Moynihan was playing third base for the Pastimes of Chicago in 1868 when a tournament was held. The Occidentals of Peoria were the opposing team. In the first inning, with a runner on first, the batter drove a liner straight over third. Moynihan shoved up his hand, the ball struck it and stuck fast in the hand. The crowd cheered. An instant later they saw something was wrong. Moynihan, writhing with pain, was running around third base. The base runner at first saw something was the matter and ran down to second. Then he ran to third and finally trotted home unmolested.

The trouble was that the ball, striking Moynihan's hand, paralyzed the nerves. The ball was stuck tight in his hand. It was five minutes before his fellow players could pry his fingers open and get the ball out.—Chicago Tribune.

Two Lads.

At one time, when De Quincey was living at Lasswade in simple and friendly relations with the people, who respected him not as a writer, but as a good neighbor, he formed a very delightful friendship with a little child, a boy of four years. This lad, a nephew of one of the housemaids, was the constant companion of the great man and would forsake any amusement for the pleasure of walking round a dull little garden with him. One day somebody heard this conversation between the two comrades:

"What d'ye call thon tree?" asked the child.

De Quincey considered and then said, with careful deliberation, "I am not sure, my dear, but I think it may be a laurustinus."

The child interrupted him with some scorn: "A laurustinus! Lad, d'ye no ken a rhodolendron?"

At that time the "lad" must have been about seventy years old.

ABYSSINIAN APES.

They Have Chiefs, Guards and Sentries When on the March.

Very similar reports are made from different parts of north Africa in regard to the monkey tribes that occupy that continent from Morocco to Abyssinia. Just how far tribal relations may have tended to vary the species is a question quite as important as that of language. Some points of interest are found in an English book, "A Visit to Abyssinia." Says our author:

"I have mentioned that large numbers of monkeys frequent these hills. They move about in organized bands, and their proceedings are arranged in the most orderly and tactical manner. They are difficult to approach unless it is gradually and cautiously done, but mounted on a camel I have succeeded in getting within a few yards of them when they were crossing the path ahead of me, about fifty in single file following their leader and looking with their manes like small lions.

"Their movements are full of interest and well repay observation. They have chiefs, sentries and advanced and rear guards on the march. The mothers carry their children on their backs exactly like the larger human creatures in these countries. They talk and chatter, the females being especially loquacious, quarrelsome and combative. These are clearly under the command of the elder males, whose gesture alone is sufficient to reduce them to obedience. They live in small caverns among the hills, but will most certainly avoid a direct return to their haunts if followed.

"They are less timid of men when these are mounted on camels than when on foot, experience having doubtless taught them that the former is usually traveling to a destination and that his steady, jogging pace is rarely interrupted by his curiosity. On one occasion, seeing a whole family tribe on the road home after a foraging excursion, I successfully tempted some of the younger ones to leave their ranks by quietly rolling pieces of bread and sugar at them, but the older members were above such weakness and went on in a stately way up the hill, disappearing over the ledge and reproving the youngsters as they retired."

Don't Cross Your Legs.

"The prevalence of appendicitis is an admitted fact," said a surgeon. "I have myself operated on 719 persons for the disease. Crossing the legs is responsible for a good deal of this trouble. That sounds strange, doesn't it? Nevertheless it is a theory advocated by more than one great surgeon. Indeed I know some men who say that if people never crossed their legs appendicitis would quite disappear. You see, crossing the leg squeezes and cramps the delicate vermiform appendix. Squeezed and cramped, the appendix becomes irritated. Inflammation sets in. Intense pain comes. Then—presto—you are on your back, the sweet and heavy fumes of chloroform are choking you, and the appendicitis specialist bends over you with a sharp knife."—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

What They Meant.

A Scotch clergyman named Fraser claimed the title and estates of Lord Lovat. He tried on the trial of the case to establish his pedigree by producing an ancestral watch on which were engraved the letters S. F. The claimant alleged that these letters were the initials of his ancestor, the notorious Simon Fraser, Lord Lovat, beheaded in 1747 for supporting the young pretender. The letters, engraved under the regulator, were shown to stand for "Slow, Fast," and the case was laughed out of court.

TWENTIETH CENTURY CLUB.

Interesting Meeting at Home of Mrs. A. M. Cushman Monday.

The meeting of the Twentieth Century Club, held at the residence of Mrs. A. M. Cushman on Monday, December 26th, was an occasion of more than usual enjoyment, and a large attendance testified to the well sustained interest in club affairs.

After the discussion and disposal of the accumulated business, the most entertaining item of which was the excellent financial report of the treasurer, the leader of the day, Mrs. Tench, took the chair, and the literary program was inaugurated. The important feature of this was an excellent paper prepared by Mrs. A. R. Harper on "The Tudor Sovereigns of England," which was supplemented by some personal incidents of the Shakespeare country from Mrs. Medlin, a brief selection on the same subject read by Mrs. Phillips, and another interesting bit of English history read by Mrs. Chapin. Very general table talk upon the subject under discussion followed, and when the gathering twilight forced a reluctant dispersal, it was with a general regret that the good-byes were uttered.

The club has inaugurated the year's work under most auspicious conditions. The membership is full, the scope of work considerably enlarged, and the very general interest manifested indicates that the work will be conscientiously performed.

The fact that the next Federation of Woman's Clubs will meet in Gainesville at the invitation of the Twentieth Century Club, will prove an incentive to energy, even if the work itself were not so interesting.

MARRIED LADIES' CLUB.

Delightful Card Party Given at Home of Mrs. B. F. Hampton.

The Married Ladies' Club tendered a delighhtful card party at the home of Mrs. B. F. Hampton, Thursday afternoon, which was well attended.

Progressive whist was the game, and there were five tables. The game was vigorously prosecuted by the ladies, many fine points being made which showed the efficiency of the players.

There was only one prize, and honors fell even with Mesdames Grieves and Layton. The ladies settled the "dispute" by cutting the cards, when Mrs. Grieves was the victor.

During the afternoon refreshments of chicken salad and coffee, wafers and olives, were served.

Treating Wrong Disease.

Many times women call on their family physicians, suffering, as they imagine, one from dyspepsia, another from heart disease, another from liver or kidney disease, another from nervous exhaustion or prostration, another with pain here and there, and in this way they all present alike to themselves and their easy-going and indifferent, or over-busy doctor, separate and distinct diseases, for which he, assuming them to be such, prescribes his pills and potions. In reality, they are all only symptoms caused by some uterine disease. The physician, ignorant of the cause of suffering, encourages this practice until large bills are made. The suffering patient gets no better, but probably worse, by reason of the delay, wrong treatment and consequent complications. A proper medicine like Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, directed to the cause would have entirely removed the disease, thereby dispelling all those distressing symptoms, and instituting comfort instead of prolonged misery. It has been well said, that "a disease known is half cured."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a scientific medicine, carefully devised by an experienced and skillful physician, and adapted to woman's delicate system. It is made of native medicinal roots and is perfectly harmless in its effects in any condition of the system.

As a powerful invigorating tonic "Favorite Prescription" imparts strength to the whole system and to the organs distinctly feminine in particular. For overworked, "worn-out," "run-down," debilitated teachers, milliners, dressmakers, seamstresses, "shop girls," house-keepers, nursing mothers, and feeble women generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the greatest earthly boon, being unequaled as an appetizing cordial and restorative tonic.

As a soothing and strengthening nervine "Favorite Prescription" is unequaled and is invaluable in allaying and subduing nervous excitability, irritability, nervous exhaustion, nervous prostration, neuralgia, hysteria, spasms, chorea, St. Vitus's dance, and other distressing, nervous symptoms commonly attendant upon functional and organic disease of the uterus. It induces refreshing sleep and relieves mental anxiety and despondency.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets invigorate the stomach, liver and bowels. One to three a dose. Easy to take as candy.

DELIGHTFUL STRAW RIDE

Participated in by a Number of Society Young Folks.

At half-past 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon a party of Gainesville ladies and gentlemen shipped aboard the hurricane deck of a double-mule tally-ho and hied themselves to Newnan's lake to enjoy the day-end of nineteen-hundred-and-six's Thanksgiving.

The merry party made merry with the valuable time spent under the blue canopy of heaven by the lovely and limpid waters of the lake.

At the hour of eight, long after Old Sol had retired in the Golden West and Fair Luna and millions of stars had appeared and lighted everywhere in a halo of glory, the party again shipped aboard the tally-ho and rode homeward bound, reaching home at nine.

After arriving home from the lake an entertainment was indulged in at the beautiful home of Mrs. M. B. Saunders.

Those who composed the party were: Miss Alma Sullivan, Miss Irene McCreary, Miss Margaret Jackson, Miss Alice Saunders, Miss Ida Redding, Miss Nina Cellon; Mr. Dyal, Mr. Clyde Evans, Mr. Bloxham Dell, Mr. Sandy Graham and Mr. Larkin Carter.

The party was chaperoned by Mrs. M. B. Saunders and Mrs. James Merchant.

Five Injured in Collision.

Macon, Ga., Nov. 30.—A collision between a regular freight train and a wrecking train on the Central of Georgia railroad, near Bolingbroke, in addition to blocking the trains, injured five men, none seriously. Both the engines were badly damaged two cars, one of oysters and one of oranges, being spilled.

Fined for an Insulting Note.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 30.—George R. Johnson, a young white man, was fined $100 in the police court for writing an insulting letter to a 16-year-old girl.

New Zealand Mocking Birds.

The Poe honey eater is one of the commonest and at the same time handsomest of the New Zealand birds. The neck is ornamented with a frill of curly feathers of a greenish color with white centers, and the throat is adorned with a tuft of white feathers, which has gained for it the popular name of "parson bird," an appellation appropriate not only because of this decoration, but because of the resemblance of its peculiar attitudes when singing to the gesticulations indulged in by exuberant lecturers when wishing to drive home their points. The bird is an excellent mimic and can be taught to repeat short sentences with extraordinary clearness and also to whistle short songs quite as well as a parrot.

A Fast Train.

"Is this a fast train?" asked a passenger who was tired of looking at a station at which the train was not supposed to stop.

"Of course it is," was the conductor's reply.

"I thought so. Would you mind my getting out to see what it's fast to?"

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, causing catarrh of the bladder, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell.

Bladder troubles almost always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

IN CIRCUIT COURT.

Entire Day Was Spent Friday in Mallard Vs. A. C. L. Damage Case.

The entire day of the circuit court Friday, which required an evening session, was consumed in the famous case of Mrs. Carrie D. Mallard vs the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company, trespass on the case, damages $50,000, for the death of husband of plaintiff.

The court, which had labored with this case all during Thursday, convened at the regular hour Friday morning, when taking of testimony was resumed. A large number of witnesses were exrmined, and at the hour for adjourning in the afternoon Judge Palmer announced a night session.

It is calculated that the case will be concluded today, when court may adjourn for the term.

MR. RAMSEY'S LOSS.

Had Misfortune to Lose Moss Mill by Fire Thursday Night.

F. H. Clyatt of Clyatt Station, on the Gainesville and Gulf, who was in the city Friday, brought the information that the large moss mill belonging to and operated by Perry G. Ramsey at Wacahoota was burned to the ground some time during Thursday night. The mill was in smouldering ruins when Mr. Clyatt passed.

Mr. Ramsey usually kept a large quantity of moss on hand, and it is supposed that this was also burned, which will aggregate a considerable loss, with the building and apparatus.

Friends of Mr. Ramsey will sympathize with him in this loss.

Sunday School Party.

Through the courtesy of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. McDonald, Rocky Point, the members of the Sunday school at that place were tendered a most delightful Thanksgiving party Thursday evening.

The evening was passed in a manner appropriate to the occasion. There were quite a number present, all of whom are under obligations to the clever host and hostess.

New York, Nov. 30.—Eight-year-old Vladimer Bayer, who, with his mother, was a cabin passenger on the Holland-American Liner Statendam, died on Nov. 19, as the result of drinking eight ounces of cognac, which was mistaken for water. The child's body was buried at sea. Mrs. Bayer attempted to throw herself overboard after the child's body had been lowered into the sea.

Goosebone Foretells Hard Winter.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Nov. 30.—Isaac Heming, the goosebone weather prophet has completed his observations for the winter and now declares that December, January and February will be severe, and that it will be the hardest winter for years, followed by a mild and early spring.

Ginners Rapped by North.

Washington, Nov. 30.—In his annual report Dr. S. N. L. North, director of the census bureau, alleges that some ginners understate reports in the hope of influencing the cotton market. He recommends more rigid laws.

Made a Gorilla King.

The craze among society women for queer pets is an old story. It usually ends through being carried too far. There is the case of Andromeda, for instance, and there is that other affair of the decadent Roman emperor's daughter, who had a pet gorilla, procured for her at great cost by an Arabian trader who supplied strange beasts for the amphitheater. One day the Praetorian guard arose and murdered the caesar. The gorilla, who happened to be present, strangled the ringleader, who was to have assumed the imperial purple himself, with its bare hands. This delighted the Praetorians that they unanimously elected the gorilla, whom they took for a barbarian from North Britain, to the vacant throne. On the mistake being explained by a zoologically minded patrician, the divus caesar had to be killed and another one chosen.—London News.

Chinese Gambler's Penance.

A Chinese cook named Chin Kan had been engaged by a wealthy Chinese in Ha In street in Canton. All the money he earned had been lost in gambling. On one occasion his master paid him some money for the provisions he supplied. The cook lost all the money at the stake. Finding that his debts were accumulating day by day, on the twenty-fourth day he went into the kitchen and chopped off the forefinger of his left hand as a self punishment and warning in order to relinquish this evil habit of gambling in the future. He became unconscious through the pain, but was brought round again in a few minutes.—Singapore Times.

A Queer Play In Baseball.

Here is a play in baseball that happened long ago. Perhaps it never will happen again. Did any one ever hear of a base runner scoring from first base on a line drive that was caught by a third baseman and when the ball never left the third baseman's hand? The play happened in this way: Andy Moynihan was playing third base for the Pastimes of Chicago in 1868 when a tournament was held. The Occidentals of Peoria were the opposing team. In the first inning, with a runner on first, the batter drove a liner straight over third. Moynihan shoved up his hand, the ball struck it and stuck fast in the hand. The crowd cheered. An instant later they saw something was wrong. Moynihan, writhing with pain, was running around third base. The base runner at first saw something was the matter and ran down to second. Then he ran to third and finally trotted home unmolested.

The trouble was that the ball, striking Moynihan's hand, paralyzed the nerves. The ball was stuck tight in his hand. It was five minutes before his fellow players could pry his fingers open and get the ball out.—Chicago Tribune.

Two Lads.

At one time, when De Quincey was living at Lasswade in simple and friendly relations with the people, who respected him not as a writer, but as a good neighbor, he formed a very delightful friendship with a little child, a boy of four years. This lad, a nephew of one of the housemaids, was the constant companion of the great man and would forsake any amusement for the pleasure of walking round a dull little garden with him. One day somebody heard this conversation between the two comrades:

"What d'ye call thon tree?" asked the child.

De Quincey considered and then said, with careful deliberation, "I am not sure, my dear, but I think it may be a laurustinus."

The child interrupted him with some scorn: "A laurustinus! Lad, d'ye no ken a rhododendron?"

At that time the "lad" must have been about seventy years old.

ABYSSINIAN APES.

They Have Chiefs, Guards and Sentries When on the March.

Very similar reports are made from different parts of north Africa in regard to the monkey tribes that occupy that continent from Morocco to Abyssinia. Just how far tribal relations may have tended to vary the species is a question quite as important as that of language. Some points of interest are found in an English book, "A Visit to Abyssinia." Says our author:

"I have mentioned that large numbers of monkeys frequent these hills. They move about in organized bands, and their proceedings are arranged in the most orderly and tactical manner. They are difficult to approach unless it is gradually and cautiously done, but mounted on a camel I have succeeded in getting within a few yards of them when they were crossing the path ahead of me, about fifty in single file following their leader and looking with their manes like small lions.

"Their movements are full of interest and well repay observation. They have chiefs, sentries and advanced and rear guards on the march. The mothers carry their children on their backs exactly like the larger human creatures in these countries. They talk and chatter, the females being especially loquacious, quarrelsome and combative. These are clearly under the command of the elder males, whose gesture alone is sufficient to reduce them to obedience. They live in small caverns among the hills, but will most certainly avoid a direct return to their haunts if followed.

"They are less timid of men when these are mounted on camels than when on foot, experience having doubtless taught them that the former is usually traveling to a destination and that his steady, jogging pace is rarely interrupted by his curiosity. On one occasion, seeing a whole family tribe on the road home after a foraging excursion, I successfully tempted some of the younger ones to leave their ranks by quietly rolling pieces of bread and sugar at them, but the older members were above such weakness and went on in a stately way up the hill, disappearing over the ledge and reproving the youngsters as they retired."

Don't Cross Your Legs.

"The prevalence of appendicitis is an admitted fact," said a surgeon. "I have myself operated on 719 persons for the disease. Crossing the legs is responsible for a good deal of this trouble. That sounds strange, doesn't it? Nevertheless it is a theory advocated by more than one great surgeon. Indeed I know some men who say that if people never crossed their legs appendicitis would quite disappear. You see, crossing the leg squeezes and cramps the delicate vermiform appendix. Squeezed and cramped, the appendix becomes irritated. Inflammation sets in. Intense pain comes. Then—presto—you are on your back, the sweet and heavy fumes of chloroform are choking you, and the appendicitis specialist bends over you with a sharp knife."—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

What They Meant.

A Scotch clergyman named Fraser claimed the title and estates of Lord Lovat. He tried on the trial of the case to establish his pedigree by producing an ancestral watch on which were engraved the letters S. F. The claimant alleged that these letters were the initials of his ancestor, the notorious Simon Fraser, Lord Lovat, beheaded in 1747 for supporting the young pretender. The letters, engraved under the regulator, were shown to stand for "Slow, Fast," and the case was laughed out of court.

WOMEN BATTLE WITH NEGRO.

Criminal Assault is Prevented by a Desperate Resistance.

Hot Springs, Ark., Nov. 30.—John Simms, the wife of a prominent merchant, and Miss Florence McKeehan fought a negro for twenty minutes to prevent him accomplishing both burglary and criminal assault. In the fight Mrs. Simms was choked almost to death and beaten until her clothes were covered with blood.

When the two women were totally exhausted and prone upon the floor of the kitchen of Mrs. Simms' home, her husband arrived, and the negro fled. At this time every officer in the police department and every deputy sheriff and constable are scouring the city and suburbs, searching for the negro. Excitement runs high and if he is caught a lynching will follow.

The negro hid in the house and waited for the woman to return from shopping. Both Mrs. Simms and Miss McKeehan gave an accurate description, and it is believed that his capture will take place before morning.

Bloodhounds have been wired for, and will be on the trail in the morning if the negro is not captured before then.

A Western Wonder.

There's a Hill at Bowie, Tex., that's twice as big as last year. This wonder is W. L. Hill, who from a weight of 90 pounds has grown to over 180. He says: "I suffered with a terrible cough, and doctors gave me up to die of consumption. I was reduced to 90 pounds, when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. Now, after taking 12 bottles, I have more than doubled in weight and am completely cured." Only sure cough and cold cure. Guaranteed by all druggists. 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.

It Was Wooden.

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 30.—By the collapsing of a tenement building in the process of construction, four of the workmen were precipitated to the ground. Edward Dillon was pinned down by the frame work of a porch. A hasty effort was made to extricate him. The rescuers worked heroically to lift the timbers from his leg. However, when he was taken out it developed that his supposedly injured extremity was wooden. The other men were slightly injured.

New Cure for Epilepsy.

J. B. Waterman of Watertown, O., Rural Free Delivery, writes: "My daughter, afflicted for years with epilepsy, was cured by Dr. King's New Life Pills. She has not had an attack for over two years." Best body cleaners and life giving tonic on earth. 25c at all drug stores.

Changes Mind at Altar.

Terre Haute, Ind., Nov. 30.—When the Rev. J. H. Carnes, at Sullivan, asked Miss Fannie Crawford, who stood before him with Andrew Haynes, if she would "take this man to be your lawful husband," she said "No." She explained that she had changed her mind.

Oil Company Indicted.

St. Louis, Nov. 30.—The federal grand jury has returned two indictments with a total of 72 counts, against the Waters-Pierce Oil company, charging the company with having accepted rebates and discriminated in legal freight rates on shipments of oil in violation of the interstate commerce law and the Elkins act. The indictments charge the Waters-Pierce company with accepting lower rates on shipmnets of oil over the Missouri Pacific and Southern Pacific lines from St. Louis to Alexandria, La., and to eleven specific points beyond. If convicted on all counts in the indictments, the aggregate maximum penalties that may be collected is $1,520,000. It is charged in the indictments that the Waters-Pierce company is a subsidiary corporation of the Standard Oil company, of New Jersey.

To Better Labor Conditions.

Birmingham, England, Nov. 30.—An important conference of the delegates representative of all grades of employes of every railroad of England and Wales has begun with the object of formulating a national program looking to the betterment of condition of all grades of railroad men. The employes of the Scotland and Irish railroads have drawn up demands. When the program, which includes an eight-hour day and improvement ing wages and recognition of the Amalgamated Society of Railroad Servants by the companies, is completed it will be presented to the companies as the united demands of all the railroad employes of the United Kingdom.

Jew Must Hang.

Sebastopol, Nov. 30.—The court-martial which has been trying the sailors and others charged with being implicated in the mutiny of November, 1905, for which Lieutenant Schmidt and three companions were executed March 19, has sentenced a civilian named Kontorovitch and two sailors to death. Kontorovitch, who is a Jew, will be hanged and the others will be shot. Three of the accused men, including the son of the army Colonel, who was the head of the mutiny until Schmidt assumed command, were sentenced to imprisonment in the mines for life, and 226 men were condemned to various terms of imprisonment at hard labor.

Kills Sister Accidentally.

Columbia, S. C., Nov. 30.—At Hartsville, Darlington county, the little 6-year-old daughter of Mr. Parrott Bell was acidentally shot and instantly killed. A brother of 10 years of age was standing on a box and reaching for a shotgun on a shelf. The box fell as the gun was grasped, and in falling the gun was discharged. The load tore off the top and side of the little girl's head, she being standing by watching her brother get the gun.

What's

Worth doing is worth doing well. If you wish to be cured of rheumatism use Ballard's Snow Liniment and you will be "well cured." A positive cure for sprains, neuralgia, bruises, contracted muscles and all the ills that flesh is heir to. A. G. M. Williams, Navasota, Texas, writes: "I have used Snow Liniment for sprained ankle and it gave the best of satisfaction. I always keep it in the house." Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Five Cloudbursts Fatal.

Murphy, N. C., Nov. 30.—Five cloudbursts on Fain mountain killed two persons, wounded others and did much damage to property and crops. The bodies of Mrs. R. C. Cornwell and an eight-year-old boy were found near their home. The husband is badly hurt, but a little daughter and an infant escaped. Houses were demolished and great holes torn in the mountain sides.

Judge Overruled Demurer.

Indianapolis, Nov. 30.—Judge A. B. Anderson, of the federal court, overruled all the demurrers in the case of the United States against the National Association of Retail Druggists and others and the defendants were ordered to answer on the first Monday in February. The case is commonly known as the suit of the United States government against the "drug trust."

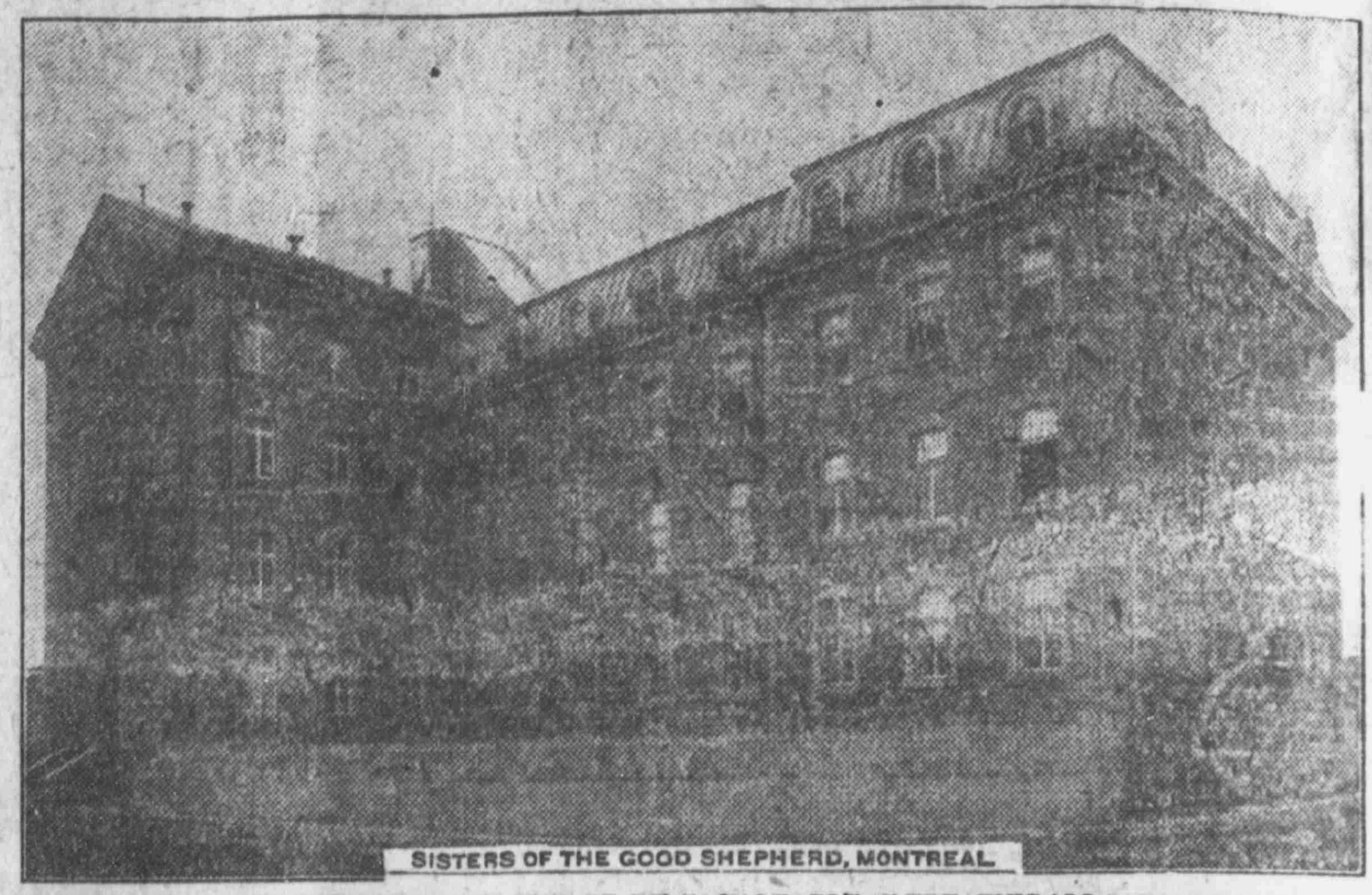
Early to Bed

And early to rise, makes one healthy, happy and wise—especially if you take Herbine before retiring. A positive cure for constipation, dyspepsia and all liver complaints. Mrs. S—, Columbia, Tenn., writes: "I always keep a supply of your Herbine on hand. Am so well pleased with the relief it gives in constipation and all liver complaints that words can't express my appreciation." Sold by W. M. Johnson.

PROMINENT HOSPITALS SAY

PE-RU-NA DOES WONDERS

IN RELIEVING ALL CATARRHAL DISEASES.



SISTERS OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD, MONTREAL.

HOSPITALS ALL OVER THE CONTINENT FIND PE-RU-NA VALUABLE IN TREATING ALL CATARRHAL DISEASES.

CATARRH of the respiratory organs is a common ailment in Canada for at least two-thirds of the year.

This condition is no doubt caused by the long, severe winters experienced in this part of the continent.

Therefore, when Peruna was discovered by Canadian people to be a reliable remedy for these catarrhal diseases, it at once became a popular medicine, not only among individuals and in families, but in the great hospitals, where it was used as a preventative and relief in hundreds of cases.

These institutions do not hesitate to give their endorsement of the remedy which has been so helpful in the treatment of their poor and sick.

Among these institutions is that of the Sisters of Good Shepherd, who gave the following endorsement:

The Peruna Company,
Columbus, Ohio.

Having used Peruna for the past few months, for our sick and poor, we are happy to say that it has given us great satisfaction.

The Sisters of the Good Shepherd,
August 20, 1903. Montreal.

After a continued use of the remedy, this institution has found no reason to change its good opinion of the remedy and expresses its satisfaction in the following terms:

Montreal, Nov 7, 1903.

We found Peruna a relief in several cases.

We can say it is a good tonic and we are very thankful.

Sisters of the Good Shepherd.

When catarrh once fastens itself upon the system, it becomes an obstinate disease to eradicate.

A systemic remedy—one that reaches every internal organ of the body—is an absolute necessity.

Peruna is just such a remedy. It searches out the cause of the disease, healing and strengthening the mucous membranes, and thus giving Nature an opportunity to perform her part of the restorative process.

One of the many hospitals which have found Peruna of value in treating old and obstinate cases of catarrh is the Hospital St. John, who write, as follows:

"We are happy to tell you that your Peruna has given us satisfaction. Three patients have tried it, one 68 years old, Renoui Dupuis, afflicted with catarrh, is much relieved, more than he has been for a number of years.

"A young girl, 15 years old, had an obstinate cough, which half a bottle of Peruna caused to disappear.

"As to myself, two bottles have convinced me that Peruna is magnificent as a tonic.

"Before the treatment I could not walk for a quarter of an hour without experiencing much fatigue. Now I can walk a mile easily.

"Through these three cases we desire to make known to the public the efficiency of your remedy."

Hospital St. John, of St. Johns, Province of Quebec.

A later letter received from the same institution reads as follows:

"Three weeks ago I wrote to tell you how satisfactory we found Peruna. We recommend it highly for colds, coughs, catarrh and neuralgia.

"I have used it myself as a tonic with the best results, taken as directed, half a teaspoonful every half hour."

Peruna not only promptly relieves coughs and colds in their first stages, but is equally prompt and efficient for catarrhal diseases in the chronic stage.

Of course, it is only reasonable to suppose that a great deal less medicine will be necessary to cure a slight attack of catarrh than would be required to relieve the ailment after it had been allowed to become chronic.

Directions for taking the remedy will be found on each bottle, also in Dr. Hartman's book, called "The Ills of Life," which can be obtained from your druggist for the asking.

For special instructions write to Dr. Hartman, President of the Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio.

Ask Your Druggist for Free Peruna Almanac for 1907.

Killed Father-In-Law.

Nashville, Nov. 30.—Att Lafayette, Macon county, Tennessee, Will Pike, of Bowling Green, Ky., shot and killed Lon Ray, father of Essie Ray, the girl Pike had just married. The wedding was a runaway affair and when Ray heard of it, he went to the home where the couple were stopping. When the two men met the shooting quickly followed, afterwhich Pike surrendered himself to the authorities.

Long Tennessee Fight.

For twenty years W. L. Rawls of Bells, Tenn., fought nasal catarrh. He writes: "The swelling and soreness inside my nose was fearful, till I began applying Bucklen's Arnica Salve to the sore surface; this caused the soreness and swelling to disappear, never to return." Best salve in existence. 25c at all druggists'.

Complaint is general throughout the South, especially in Georgia and Florida, of the miserable railroad service. Just why the railroad officials cannot render the public better service in the transportation of passengers and freight is not clear. Is it owing to the lack of facilities or inefficient traffic men? In either case the fault should be remedied without delay.

A boy who calls his mother the "old woman," or his father "the governor," is building upon the sand. Do you want to be a power among men?—to be a leader? Learn to control your temper, to master yourself. A boy who does not control his tongue and his temper will never become a master of men. Do not imitate the vices of fast young men, thinking it will make you manly.

The school library does awake an interest in the pupil. It gives him a good appetite; it stimulates. It opens the channels of usefulness. It has a powerful tendency to keep the boy in school longer, and thus in the above enumerated ways aids in the development of those traits of character that will be beneficial to the men and women of the future, and also to those with whom they come in contact through business and social life.

"Is your father rich?" someone asked a five-year-old girl, and the little one replied confidently, "Why, of course! He's got me." And she was right, too, for the father of a sweet, loving, helpful little daughter is richer than some millionaires whose money cannot buy them the love of a single heart. How about your father? Does he feel that he is a rich man because of the daughter at home? There are households where it is hard "to make both ends meet," but where there is plenty of that better wealth of love and goodness and loyalty. Is yours one of them?

To place your umbrella in a rack indicates that it is about to change owners; an umbrella carried over a woman, the man getting nothing but the drippings of the rain, signifies courtship; when the man has the umbrella and the woman the drippings, it indicates marriage; to carry it at an angle under the arm signifies that an eye is to be lost by the man who follows you; to put a cotton umbrella by the side of a silk one means "exchange is no robbery;" to lend an umbrella may be interpreted, "I am a fool;" to carry an umbrella just high enough to tear out men's eyes and knock off men's hats signifies, "I am a woman."

Every little while we read in the papers that someone has run a rusty nail in his foot or other portion of his body and lockjaw resulted therefrom and the patient died. If every person was aware of a perfect remedy for such wounds and would apply it, then such reports would cease. The remedy is simple, always at hand, can be applied by anyone—what is better, it is infallible. It is simply to smoke the wound, or any wound that is bruised or inflamed, with a woolen cloth. Twenty minutes in the smoke will take the pain out of the worst case of inflammation arising from such a wound. People may sneer at this remedy as much as they please, but when they are afflicted with such wounds, let them try it.

AN UNEXPECTED REFORM.

When Chicago doubled its liquor license fee it hoped to gain two objects—the wiping out of the cheap saloons, notoriously the haunts of vice and the breeding spots of crime, and an increase in the revenue which would permit the enlarging of the police force. But the increase of the saloon license from $500 to $1,000 seems to have wrought another and unexpected reform. It has reduced Chicago's consumption of liquor and inferentially its drunkenness.

As soon as the high license law was enacted the saloon-keepers set about to make it as objectionable to their patrons as themselves. They cut out the free lunch, abandoned the schooners and began serving small glasses on the ground that they cannot afford under the new rate to be as generous as of old. The purpose is of course plain, as reproachfully stated by one saloon-keeper to his protesting customers, "We got to make the drink fit the wishes of the community, which is not you fellows. It is thus put up to you fellows to get a majority and be the community."

But the saloon-keeper overlooks the fact to which a contemporary calls attention, that the reduction may be a double-edged object lesson. If doubling the license fee cuts the size of the drink in half is it not likely that the opponents of the saloon may be found asking how high the fee would have to be raised to cut out the drink altogether? This is a pertinent inquiry and it seems to be a logical one.

TAXING THE CHILDREN.

When you buy the Christmas toys for the little children and wish they did not cost so much, so that you might also buy for some other little ones you know of who are not so well provided for as your own are, remember that the tariff tax on these toys is from 25 to 50 per cent, according to the kind and quality. As there is over $200,000,000 in the United States Treasury more than the government requires, and of that amount $154,000,000 is loaned without interest to favored national banks, there is no need for this tax on dolls and toys that the Republican party persists in collecting. Ask your Republican neighbor to investigate the tariff tax, and the more he looks into it the less likely he will be to vote to continue the standpatters in power when the election in 1908 comes around. No sensible voter can desire to pay taxes to protect the trusts and thereby allow those corporations to advance the price of their products, when he discovers that the money is not necessary to provide for government expenses, and especially when out of what he pays in increased prices the government gets but one-sixth of what goes to the trusts.

Running a newspaper is just like running a hotel, only different. When a man goes into a hotel and finds something on the table which does not suit him, he does not raise hades with the landlord and tell him to stop his old hotel. Well, hardly. He sets that dish to one side and wades into the many dishes that suit him. It is different with some newspaper readers. They find an article occasionally that does not suit them exactly and without stopping to think it may please hundreds of other readers, make a grandstand play and tell the editor how a paper should be run and what should be put into it.

The man who gets mad at what the newspaper says about him should return thanks three times a day for what the newspaper knew about him and suppressed.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give one hundred dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

OUR GREAT TASK.

That no one man is necessary for the well-being, order and safety of the public in the United States is shown during the absence of President Roosevelt from his official duties. The capital of the nation and the whole country appear to have run just as well when the boss was absent and some people think even with less disturbance. The American people have perfected the lesson of how to govern themselves, which is their heritage from their Anglo-Saxon forefathers, and are intent on teaching it to others. The trial of our steadfastness is now turned to the assimilation of the millions of Latins and Slavs that reach our shores and the teaching them the lessons of becoming orderly citizens capable of self-government and the task is no easy one, but it will be accomplished in the second or third generation. Each Sovereign American citizen must do his share in thus preserving the Democratic-Republic in its purity and his own birthright of equality and liberty before the law.

Yes, Christmas is drawing very near. Then let us with one hand tenderly cling to the old year, while we stretch forth the other to greet the new. To some it has been a year of prosperity, to others one of adversity and sorrow. As we look back over past events we cannot fail to note the absence of many that were with us a year ago. But now they are gone, been called home to return no more. This time last year they were planning a surprise for some one near and dear to them in the way of a Christmas present that would cause them to be remembered as the years roll on bringing the joyous Christmas time.

The official figures of the vote of the recent election show a majority of 5,326 against the drainage amendment in a vote of 18,388 cast upon the question. Only two counties comprising the so-called drainage district voted in favor of the amendment—Brevard and Lee.

BUSINESS DERELICTS.

The Army of Men Who "Had Money, but Lost It."

A prominent New York lawyer of wide experience says that in his opinion ninety-nine out of every hundred of those who make money or inherit it lose it sooner or later.

How many thousands of good honest men and women there are in this country who have worked very hard and made all sorts of sacrifices of comfort and luxury in order to lay up something for the future and yet have reached middle life or later without having anything to show for it, many of them, indeed, finding themselves without a home or any probability of getting one, without property or a cent of money laid by for sickness, for the inevitable emergency or for their declining years!

For the sake of your home, for the protection of hard earnings, for your peace of mind, your self respect, your self confidence, whatever else you do do not neglect a good, solid business training and get it as early in life as possible. It will save you from many a fall, from a thousand embarrassments and perhaps from the humiliation of being compelled to face your wife and children and confess that you have been a failure. It may save you from the mortification of having to move from a good home to a poor one, of seeing your property slip out of your hands and of having to acknowledge your weakness and your lack of foresight and thoughtfulness or your being made the dupe of sharpers.

Many men who once had good stores of their own are working as clerks, floorwalkers or superintendents of departments in other people's stores just because they risked and lost everything in some venture. As they now have others depending on them, they do not dare to take the risks which they took in young manhood, and so they struggle along in mediocre positions, still mocked with ambitions which they have no chance to gratify.

Thousands of people who were once in easy circumstances are living in poverty and wretchedness today because they failed to put an understanding or an agreement in writing or to do business in a business way. Families have been turned out of house and home penniless because they trusted to a relative or a friend to "do what was right" by them without making a hard and fast, practical business arrangement with him.

It does not matter how honest people are. They forget, and it is so easy for misunderstandings to arise that it is never safe to leave anything of importance to a mere oral statement. Reduce it to writing. It costs but little in time or money, and when all parties interested are agreed that is the best time to formulate the agreement in exact terms. This will often save lawsuits, bitterness and alienations. How many friendships have been broken by not putting understandings in writing. Thousands of cases are in the courts today because agreements were not put in writing. A large part of lawyers' incomes is derived from the same source.

Business talent is as rare as a talent for mathematics. We find boys and girls turned out of school and college full of theories and of all sorts of knowledge or smatterings of knowledge, but without the ability to protect themselves from human thieves who are trying to get something for nothing. No girl or boy should be allowed to graduate, especially from any of the higher institutions, without being well grounded in practical business methods. Parents who send their children out in life without seeing that they are well versed in ordinary business principles do them an incalculable injustice. —Success.

TOUGH PAPER.

Not an Easy Feat to Twist a Bank Bill in Two.

"The paper that is used by the government in its currency is manufactured by a secret process and has characteristics with which the average man is not 'familiar,'" said a Minneapolis man.

"Recently I was in a small Minnesota town and witnessed an incident that demonstrates this. A well to do farmer living in the vicinity came into the bank to transact some business. In the course of the conversation the cashier began twisting a five dollar bill. The farmer watched him with interest and finally asked the man back of the counter if he wasn't afraid of tearing the bill.

"'Here is an easy way for you to earn money,' said the cashier. 'Here is a thousand dollar bill and I will give it to you if you will twist the bill in two. You are simply to twist it and not tear it.'

"The farmer seemed dumfounded at first. He seemed awed at the thought of mutilating a thousand dollar bill. Upon further assurance by the officer of the bank, he timidly took the money and started twisting it in the middle. He tugged away for some time without being able to twist the bill in two. Finally he gave up, and he was certainly a surprised farmer. It is impossible to twist a bill in two, so firm and elastic is the paper used."—Exchange.

THE SHAGGY BROTHER.

Official Organ of the Wandering Vagabonds of Bavaria.

Perhaps the most remarkable specimen of periodical literature produced in Europe is Bruder Straubinger (literally "the shaggy brother," a name accepted throughout southern Germany as a synonym for a wandering artisan). It is published at Spalt, near Nuremberg, the center of the Bavarian hop growing industry, and is written by, read by and devoted to the class interests of the hop pickers, a strange medley of beggars, vagabonds, laborers out of work, peddlers and gypsies, who assemble many thousand strong at the season of the hop harvest and picnic in the neighborhood of Spalt in barns, stables, tents and whatever free quarters they can find.

This singular folk seem to have developed a strong class sentiment. Spalt, their headquarters, they call "Spain," and the residential suburb of the town is known to them as "Portugal." Indeed, for most of the commodities and conceptions that occupy a place in the foreground of their daily experience they have coined special designations, so that their talk, though German, is mostly incomprehensible to the uninitiated. Every year they elect a king of the hop gatherers, who is called "Schuster Karl" (Cobbler Charlie), his wife, the queen, receiving for the short term of her reign the name of "Zenzi."

Bruder Straubinger, the official organ of this wandering folk, appears twice a month. Its editor and permanent staff are all "to the manner born," though several of them have given up their former vagabond life and are now settled in the neighborhood of Spalt. The paper is well managed and arranged. Its advertisement columns appeal exclusively to the class whose interests it represents, and its literary contributions are often surprisingly good in quality. They include articles on subjects affecting the hop gathering interest, short stories and sketches and a good deal of verse, sentimental and humorous.

Of the verse the following, taken at random, may serve as a specimen:

A scamp I am, a scamp I'll be
Until life's closing minute;
A scamp shall dig a grave for me;
A scamp shall lay me in it.
The staff and scrip with which I tramp
Bequeath I to a brother scamp,
And, if he's not afraid of dirt,
A scamp may have my only shirt.

Children's

Favorite tonic is White's Cream Vermifuge, the cure for worms and all children's diseases. It not only kills the worms, but removes the mucus and slime in which they build their nests. Its action on the child is mild and leaves him in a healthy condition. Joe Daniel, Surmac, Tenn., says that he gave one of his children White's Cream Vermifuge when the doctor thought it had colic, and from the first dose the child passed 73 worms. For sale by W. M. HOG AND HORSE.

Attacked by the Mad Farm Hand Who Cut Flesh from Their Hips.

Princeton, Ind., Nov. 30.—Frank Turner, aged 26, a farm hand in the employ of John Redman, became suddenly insane and going to the barn, clubbed a valuable horse several times across the side and hip, seriously injuring the animal.

When discovered by Redman he was cutting strips of flesh from the animal's hip and laughing hysterically. When driven away from the horse Turner gave chase to a hog, and on catching it, slashed it across the back with the sharp blade. He was finally overpowered and disarmed by Redman, who locked him in the barn until Sheriff Whiting could reach the scene. He is now confined in the county jail here, and the sheriff of Martinsville, Ind., his former home, has been notified to come for him.

Crutchfield Not Guilty.

Atlanta, Nov. 30.—The ury in the case of the state against J. H. Crutchfield, on trial in the superior court upon the charge of having shot his wife with intent to kill her, returned a verdict of not guilty, after remaining out one hour and twenty minutes. While the verdict may be a surprise to some, it was not to Crutchfield, who, while waiting for the jury to reach a verdict confidently said: "I'll be acquitted. I know it because the Lord told me so in a dream, just as He told me in a dream that my wife would not die from her wound."

A Miraculous Cure.

The following statement by H. M. Adams and wife, Henrietta, Pa., will interest parents and others. "A miraculous cure has taken place in our home. Our child had eczema 5 years and was pronounced incurable, when we read about Electric Bitters, and concluded to try it. Before the second bottle was all taken we noticed a change for the better, and after taking 7 bottles he was completely cured." It's the up-to-date blood medicine and body building tonic. Guaranteed. 50c and $1 at all drug stores.

Old Officials Elected.

New York, Nov. 30.—All the old officers of the Seaboard Air Line railway company, with the exception of Norman S. Meldrim, first vice president, were re-elected at a meeting held in this city. Mr. Meldrim declined to stand for re-election. W. Garrett, of Cincinnati, general manager of the Cincinnati, New Orleans and Texas Pacific railway company, was elected first vice president to succeed Mr. Meldrim. Alfred Walter, president of the company, was elected a member of the executive committee.

Spotted Fever Kills Three.

Bellefontaine, O., Nov. 30.—Robt. Albert died of spotted fever, making the third fatal case of the disease in the neighborhood within 10 days. Neighbors were so alarmed at the death of Mr. and Mrs. Newton Joslyn, that they would not go to the Albert home, where the wife and baby were alone with the patient, who was violent.

LOST AND FOUND.

In England 10 Per Cent Is the Recognized Reward.

"If you lost a watch worth $100 what reward would you give the finder for its return?"

"Oh, ten or twelve dollars."

"Ten per cent, eh? Well, that is about right," said the detective. "It is more, though, than the average person would give. Here in America in lost and found cases there is no recognized percentage of reward, but in England there is such a percentage, namely, half a crown to a pound; that is to say, about 10 per cent. Ten per cent is what the finder must be paid in England provided he takes his find to a police station or to Scotland Yard. He always does so, as otherwise the owner is apt to give him less than the legal 10 per cent. I lost in a London cab a kit bag worth $20. The kit bag was returned by the cabby to Scotland Yard and I left there for him gladly a reward of $2. If the bag had been worth $2,000 I'd have been charier of handing out $200, but that is what I'd have to do before the Scotland Yard folks would have given me my property. When you lose anything be prepared to give at least 10 per cent to the finder. Ten per cent is the recognized reward in lost and found cases abroad, and it should be the recognized reward here. To my mind it is little enough, and they who give less are to my mind dishonest."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

Asthma Sufferers Should Know This.

Foley's Honey and Tar has cured many cases of asthma that were considered hopeless. Mrs. Adolph Buesing, 701 West Third St., Davenport, Iowa, writes: "A severe cold contracted twelve years ago was neglected until it finally grew into asthma. The best medical skill available could not give me more than temporary relief. Foley's Honey and Tar was recommended and one fifty-cent bottle entirely cured me of asthma which had been growing on me for twelve years. If I had taken it at the start I would have been saved years of suffering." J. W. McCollum & Co.

The White Trout Legend.

In County Tipperary, Ireland, there is a holy well in which swims a white trout with a red spot on its side. This is the legend of how this strange fish originated: When Cromwell's army was passing through Ireland it bivouacked in the neighborhood of this well. A soldier, hearing of the splendid white trout in it, swore he would have it for his next meal. With a scoop net he managed to capture the fish, and when he reached home laid it in the frying pan. Immediately it leaped out on the floor. Several times this was repeated. Finally the soldier put the lid on the pan and a great stone upon it to hold it down. When he thought the fish cooked he transferred it to a plate. The moment, however, he stuck his fork into it there was a great shriek, the trout leaped to the floor, and there, instead of a fish, lay a beautiful young girl with blood streaming from her side where the fork had entered. The girl reproached the soldier with his cruelty and commanded him to put her in the well, where she was obliged to stay until the last day under the spell of enchantment. This the soldier did, and the enchanted one is still there in the form of a white trout with a blood red mark upon its side. The legend does not tell what became of the soldier.

Notice to Our Customers.

We are pleased to announce that Foley's Honey and Tar for coughs, colds and lung troubles is not affected by the National Pure Food and Drug law as it contains no opiates or other harmful drugs, and we recommend it as a safe remedy for children and adults. J. W. McCollum & Co.

Size of Heads.

The average adult head has a circumference of fully twenty-two inches. The average adult hat is fully six and three-quarters size. The sizes of men's hats are six and three-fourths and six and seven-eighths generally. "Sevens" hats are common in Aberdeen, and the professors of our colleges generally wear seven and one-eighth to eight sizes. Heads wearing hats of the sizes six and three-eighths and smaller or being less than twenty-one inches in circumference can never be powerful. Between nineteen and twenty inches in circumference heads are invariably very weak and, according to this authority, "no lady should think of marrying a man with a head less than twenty inches in circumference." People with heads under nineteen inches are mentally deficient and with heads under eighteen inches invariably idiotic.—London Young Woman.

TESTING METHODS

A test as to the value of newspaper advertising over other methods was made a year ago by the great publishing house of Harper & Bros. Two books were selected, one by a well known popular author and the other by an unknown writer. The latter was selected for the newspaper advertising and the other for the usual channels.

With equal expenditure the work advertised in the newspapers outstripped the other in sales by 200,000 copies.

The result was a complete surprise and established the fact that readers go to the newspapers for information with regard to books as well as with regard to most other matters.—National Printer-Journalist.

The best advertising medium for any merchant is the local paper which goes into the homes of the people, as this paper does.

When Musicians Were Scarce.

In these days of conservatories and music schools, when each house has its piano or its organ, to say nothing of devotees to the cornet, violin and banjo, it seems strange to assert that there ever was a time when musicians were in demand, yet such was really the case. "In the fifteenth century," says Mr. Henry M. Brooks in his "Olden Time Music," "musicians were so scarce in England that they were impressed by government order, as in more recent times seamen had to suffer in like manner. Henry VIII. also issued warrants for the impressment of children with good voices for the choirs of the cathedrals, and in Elizabeth's time children with the proper qualification for her majesty's choirs were taken from their parents without any compensation being given to the latter."

"It Suits to a T."

The clause, "It suits to a T," meaning it fits exactly, is as old as the familiar instrument, the T square or T rule (so called from its resemblance to the letter T), used by mechanics and draftsmen for making angles true and for obtaining perpendiculars. The expression was in common use in the time of Dr. Johnson, who is quoted by Boswell as saying of Wharburton, "You see they'd have fitted him to a T."
